[Bar name]

[Bar name] is our extremely comfortable bar. Inside the dining rooms of [Restaurant1] is our cozy drink oasis like a much padded inner pocket. In this silk-clad comfort parlor, you can sink into the well stuffed [Manufacturer brand] armchairs and indulge in a moment (or an entire evening) of alcohol romance. Here, you are always welcome to drop in for a glass or two, but some of our armchairs are also bookable, so with a little preparation, you can always be sure to have a very comfortable armchair and time ahead. In other words, you can book seats on all beverage related occasions. Here at [Bar name], comfort is a watchword, and we hope to be able to offer you that most comfortable appetizer drink, facilitate that meeting that requires better liquid inspiration, be there and offer the support for the social drinking-togetherness, or just straight up and down to be a comfortable oasis in the infinitely wonderful nightlife. Remember, it is always twice as good to drink comfortably. Welcome!

We are, and always have been, a bunch of diehard alcohol romantics and most of what is fermented, distilled, or both, interest us. This naturally reflects the extensive range of (alcoholic) beverages at [Bar name]. We work with a dynamic range of glass wines from the classic wine districts, craft beer from far and wide, classic cocktails with a twist of our house, and a plethora of digestive-spirits. In addition to this, we also have our large wine cellar. Today, this holds a variety of wines (around 14,000 bottles of wine spread over approximately 1600 labels) focusing on the classic wine regions and countries. Cheers!

The courtyard and our tobacco

Upstairs from [Bar name] is our courtyard and here is also home to our summertime barbecue [Restaurant2]. Up here you can bring your drink, listen to Cuban jazz and see the sky on the ceiling. In these times of prohibition, having the sky as the ceiling implies a nice benefit: one can indulge in smoking of the most kinds and this, of course, we strongly like. The Humidor cabinet on [Bar name] is filled with hand-rolled Cuban cigars. Cuaba, Cohiba, Partagas, Montecristo, H. Upmann, Hoyo de Monterey, Punsch, Ramon Allones, and Romeo y Julieta are some brands that are always represented here with us, but if you or your party rather prefer sweeping in a mint cigarette with the drink, this of course is perfectly fine (however, you need to bring it with you by yourself).

Food

Drink is at the heart of [Bar name], but drink requires food just as food requires drink, so therefore we have put together a menu that accompanies drinking excellently. It consists of assorted snacks, our stored cured meats, canapés, meat sandwiches, cheeses and desserts, and is compiled to fit the beverages before or after (or both) the current restaurant visit, but also to saturate contentedly if you choose to extend your visit to an entire evening.
